1. I come to You for I looked in - to their in-ner-most heart:
2. I come to You for I looked in - to their in-ner-most heart: they're
3. I come to You for I looked in - to Your in-ner-most heart:

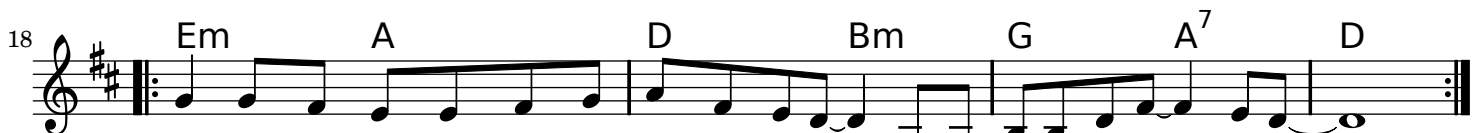

long-ing for peace and long-ing for love, and ev' ry time be-trayed.
look-ing for You, but they don't find You, and no - one shows the way.
You are the one who fol-low the lost, a shep-herd and a friend;

No-one is there to keep and to care, for they are quite a - lone.
Lord, let me be as fire and light, that they can touch Your hand.
You are the truth, the fire and light, and I am rea-dy for You.

Lord, give me souls and take the rest a - way, what-e - ver happens a - bove, so they can feel that they are chil-dren of God un-con-di-tio-nal-ly be-loved.
