

Provincials' Letter

November 8, 2012

Dear Brother and Sister Salesians:

Have you read the Rector Major's last letter? Its title is Mary the Immaculate Help of Christians, with the subtitle "Mother and Teacher of Don Bosco."

This time of preparation for our provincial chapter and the general chapter to follow is a time for intense reflection on the Salesian vocation we all share, whether as consecrated religious, lay collaborators, or members of the Salesian youth movement. Likewise this time leading up to the extraordinary visitation of our province in a few months is preparing us to hear some recommendations from our Rector Major tailor made for us as a provincial community. The chapters and the extraordinary visitation, I can predict, are all going to focus on the same challenge: becoming more like Don Bosco, each and every one of us.

And that is why I recommend that we all read, if we have not already, Pascual Chavez's latest letter. There can be no authentic Salesian renewal without contemplating "the figure of Mary the Immaculate Help of Christians, in everything and always the Mother and Teacher of Don Bosco."

One of the themes in the letter is the role of Mary at the beginning of Don Bosco's vocation and then all throughout his life. In his dream at the age of nine it was Mary who showed him his field of labor. Mary pointed out to him that he was to be a shepherd to the young, imitating the goodness and loving kindness of her Son the Good Shepherd.

But then Mary did not withdraw into fuzzy half remembered dreams. As our Rule of Life puts it in C 8, she was "the constant guide and support of his work, especially in the foundation of our Society." Reading his Memoirs, reading Arthur Lenti's seven volumes on Don Bosco, we cannot miss how Mary the Immaculate Help of Christians guided and supported him every step of the way.

My reflection is that Mary still exercises both roles in the individual lives of each of us, and in the life of the province. She was there at the start of our vocations. And I believe firmly that she is our constant guide and support ever since. As our province opens itself up to the changes of mentality and structure, of personnel and perhaps of presences, that the chapters and the extraordinary visitation will call us to, we need to be convinced that Mary guides and supports us too.

There is so much more in the letter, for example a deep presentation of the relationship between Don Bosco's two most common titles for Mary (Immaculate Conception and Help of Christians), Mary as the biblical model of faith, hope and love, and Mary in our Constitutions. I ask each one of us to read the letter personally. And I also urge communities to use it as a common spiritual reading, and to discuss it at Community Day gatherings. It will be well worth the effort, especially during this Year of Faith.

Sincerely,

Rev. Timothy Ploch, SDB

My reflection is that Mary still exercises both roles in the individual lives of each of us, and in the life of the province. She was there at the start of our vocations. And I believe firmly that she is our constant guide and support ever since.

“Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again:

Rejoice!”

EDUCATION OF THE HEART

Beginning from our understanding of Don Bosco's pedagogy, the major points of reference and the tasks of Strenna 2013 are as follows.

1. The 'Gospel of joy', which characterises all of Don Bosco's history and is the soul of his many activities. Don Bosco intercepted the desire for happiness in young people and listed their joy of living in language like cheerfulness, the playground and festivity; but he never ceased to point towards God as the source of real joy.

Filiberto
Cortez
candidate

Filiberto Cortez was born in a small village in Puebla, Mexico on August 22, 1976. He has an older brother, Juan Manuel who belongs to Misioneros Servidores De La Palabra. He has a younger brother and a younger sister. Both of his parents live in Bellflower (Epifania and Magdaleno). Fili graduated from Downey High School in 1995, where he ran cross country and track setting a few school records. He continued his education at Mt. SAC and then transferred to CSLA in 1998. He attained his first B.A. in philosophy. He then joined the United States Marine Corps and soon after getting out of the Marines he became a teacher. He was a teacher for six years and got his second B.A. in psychology. Soon after getting his second B.A. he attained his teaching credentials from CSLA.

Fili has had a passion for backpacking and outdoor activities, making treks in South and Central America numerous times as well as overseas. His love for whitewater rafting and snowboarding have always inspired him to live life passionately. However, it seemed that there was always something missing in his life. In the summer of 2011 Fili learned about the Salesian Lay Missionary program and in November 2011 he went to Salesian High School in Richmond California as a Lay Missionary. Soon after joining the missionary program he applied to the Salesian candidacy program. In August 2011 Fili began the candidacy program at Saint John Bosco, since Fili has a teaching credentials, part of his ministry was to teach.

INTENSIVE SALESIAN COURSES

SALESIAN PEDAGOGY

JAN 7-11
5pm-8:30pm

Education & Evangelization: Girls & Young Women

JAN 14-18
5pm-8:30pm

Education & Evangelization: Boys & Young Men

Berkeley, CA

For the Salesian Family, the entire academic year 2012-2013 is dedicated to the study of St. John Bosco's Educational Methodology, a Salesian Pedagogy. Therefore, the Institute of Salesian Studies is offering two week-long intensive courses. The first week presents a pedagogical approach to the education and evangelization of girls & young women, and the second week for boys & young men.

Although these two weeks of courses stand on their own, the two weeks are designed to complement each other. You may register for one or two weeks.

Week One

Sr. Ann Cassidy, FMA draws upon the research of contemporary educators, as well as her own years of experience, to highlight the effectiveness of Salesian pedagogy, as well as to tailor its educational methods to the education of girls & young women.

Week Two

Fr. John Serio, SDB, tailors his course toward the Salesian educational and evangelical approach for boys & young men.

Continuing Education/Graduate UNITS

If you wish to take these courses for graduate or continuing education units, email:
